KING CHARLES INN, CHARLESTON, SC, COMPLETES ROOM ENHANCEMENT PROJECT

King Charles Inn on Meeting Street in Charleston completes $6.5 million renovation

CHARLESTON, SC – The Best Western King Charles Inn, located at 237 Meeting Street in Charleston, recently completed a $6,500,000 renovation. Enhancements were determined by polling guests for desired improvements which included custom case goods, refrigerators, in room safe, enhanced lighting, granite desk tops, matelasse coverlets, upgraded 14' mattresses and bedding, European pillows, new door locking systems, crown moulding, LCD 32" flat screen televisions, iHome docking stations with AM/FM radio, all new lamps, artwork, draperies and new carpeting. Further, fiber optics were put in place throughout the property positioning King Charles Inn as one of the first hotels in the Southeast equipped for internet protocol communications such as IP TV and VoIP. The guest rooms are ideally suited for business and leisure travelers alike.

“The enhancement project at King Charles Inn is a giant step for the hotel. The guest rooms are comparable with any hotel room in Charleston – from the nicest bed and breakfast to five star staples. We will settle for nothing short of outstanding service and quality from this point forward.” said Michael Tall, Senior Vice President.
